AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mrs. MORELLA) at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

All praise and honor to You, Lord God. Each day You shower the United States of America with blessings. Enable us to receive Your gifts graciously.

With gratitude for all we have received, may each of us use our gifts in service to one another. Like good stewards dispensing the grace of God in various ways, may our very diversity give You greater glory.

If any of us is to speak out, let us speak with Your Word. If any of us desires to serve, let it be in the strength You supply.

The speaker needs another to listen. The dispenser of good gifts needs another to receive graciously. May true dialogue and the exchange of gifts be the unfolding of Your power in our midst.

In all things, let us so act that the glory and the power be Yours forever and ever. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House her approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. TRAFICANT) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. TRAFICANT led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

DISPENSING WITH CALL OF PRIVATE CALENDAR ON TODAY

Mr. SENSENBRENNER. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the call of the Private Calendar be dispensed with today.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Wisconsin?

There was no objection.

UNITED STATES SENATOR JOE LIEBERMAN MISSES GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

(Mr. COMBEST asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COMBEST. Madam Speaker, last week, the Democratic candidate for Vice President made a brief stop in Odessa, Texas, in my district. He arrived with an agenda to embarrass our hometown son, Governor George Bush. He tried to cast Odessa in a bad light by making false claims against one of our most ardent businesses, the Huntsman Corporation.

The Huntsman plant is a business anchor to the Permian Basin, employing over 700 hard-working men and women. It is a good corporate citizen and an asset to our community. I am sorely disappointed that their campaign would exploit our town for political gain.

The folks of Odessa and Midland were ready to accommodate their guests. However, the candidate snubbed officials from both cities, including the chambers of commerce, mayors, and even the chairman of the Democratic Party. Our local media was also kept at arms' length. Only the candidate's handpicked media could cover the story, with only biased facts.

We in politics fully understand the staged media events and photo-ops, but the Senator's treatment of these kind folks, whom I am honored to represent, was truly uncalled for and out of line. His visit was a missed opportunity for him to meet the real success story in the Permian Basin, the people.

DRUG CZAR DID NOTHING FOR UNITED STATES BORDERS

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Madam Speaker, the Drug Czar is retiring to teach national security issues at two colleges. Now, do not get me wrong. I like General McCaffrey. But for years, while truckloads and boatloads of heroin and cocaine were coming across our border, General McCaffrey asked for more money, more cops, more halfway houses, more counselors, and more TV commercials. He did nothing about our borders.

This drug czar lecturing on national security is like Janet Reno teaching a class on treason. Beam me up.

I yield back the fact that, while our soldiers are vaccinating dogs in Haiti, American police departments are training police dogs to sniff out heroin and cocaine in our schools. Think about it.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair announces that she will postpone further proceedings today on each motion to suspend the rules on which a recorded vote or the yeas and nays are ordered, or on which the vote is objected to under clause 6 of rule XX.

Any record votes on postponed questions will be taken tomorrow.
